The sale of licensed products by vending machine shall require a license under this chapter. In the case of a vending machine, the license shall be held by the person or organization which has control and supervision of the premises.

281.20. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following terms shall mean:

Child-resistant packaging means packaging that meets the definition set forth in Code of Federal Regulations, Title 16, Section 1700.15(b), as in effect on January 1, 2015, and which was tested in accordance with the method described in Code of Federal Regulations, Title 16, Section 1700.20, as in effect on January 1, 2015.

Compliance checks means the system the city uses to investigate and ensure that those authorized to sell licensed products are following and complying with the requirements of this ordinance. Compliance checks involve the use of persons under the age of twenty-one (21) who purchase or attempt to purchase licensed products. Compliance checks may also be conducted by the city or other units of government for educational, research, and training purposes or for investigating or enforcing federal, state, or local laws and regulations relating to licensed products.

Electronic delivery device includes, but is not limited to, devices manufactured, marketed, or sold as e-cigarettes, e-cigars, e-pipes, vape pens, mods, tank systems, or under any other product name or descriptor. Electronic delivery device includes any component part of a product, whether or not marketed or sold separately. A public statement or claim made or disseminated by the manufacturer of a product, or by any person authorized or permitted by the manufacturer to make or disseminate such statements or claims, that a tobacco product has or produces a taste or aroma other than tobacco may be one (1) of the methods used to determine that the product is a flavored tobacco product, and shall, to the extent permitted by law, create a rebuttable presumption that the product is a flavored tobacco product.

Imitation product means any edible non-tobacco product designed to resemble a tobacco product, or any non-edible tobacco product designed to resemble a tobacco product and intended to be used by children as a toy. Imitation tobacco product includes, but is not limited to, candy or chocolate cigarettes, bubble gum cigars, shredded bubble gum resembling chewing tobacco, and shredded beef jerky in containers resembling tobacco snuff tins. Nicotine or lobelia delivery product does not include any product that has been authorized by the United States Food and Drug Administration to be marketed and for sale as "drugs," "devices," or "combination products," as defined in the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Self-service merchandising means open displays of licensed products in any manner where any person shall have access to the licensed products without the assistance or intervention of the licensee or licensee's employee. The assistance or intervention shall entail the actual physical exchange of the licensed products or between the customer and the licensee or employee.

Self-service method means a method of sales of licensed products whereby the customer does not need to make a verbal or written request to an employee of the licensed premises in order to receive the licensed product and no physical exchange of the licensed product occurs between the customer and the licensee, or an employee or agent of the licensee.

Tobacco means cigarettes and any product containing, made, or derived from tobacco that is intended for human consumption, whether chewed, smoked, absorbed, dissolved, inhaled, snorted, sniffed, or ingested by any other means, or any component, part, or accessory of:

"Tobacco products shop" does not include a tobacco department or section of any individual business establishment with any type of liquor, food, or restaurant license.

Tobacco-related devices mean a pipe, rolling papers, or other devices intentionally designed or intended to be used in a manner which enables the chewing, sniffing, ingesting, absorbing, or smoking of tobacco or licensed products.

This subsection does not apply to licensed off-sale liquor stores with regard to menthol, mint, or wintergreen flavored tobacco products, provided that such an establishment does not permit any persons under the age of twenty-one (21) to be present within the establishment unaccompanied by a parent or guardian.

281.90. Presumptive penalty for licensee. (a) Purpose. The purpose of this section is to establish a standard by which the city council and the licensing official determine the number of fines, length of license suspensions, and the propriety of revocations for licensees. These penalties are presumed to be appropriate for every case; however, the council may deviate therefrom in an individual case where the council finds and determines that there exist substantial and compelling reasons which make it appropriate to do so, except, the council may not deviate below statewide minimum penalties for licensees.
