

The Minneapolis Commission on Civil Rights (MCCR) supports and defends the rights of our community members to exercise their civil rights. To this end, the MCCR supports these peaceful actions:

1. We support peaceful demonstration as a fundamental right of the people. We encourage people who wish to demonstrate, to do so peacefully, with full knowledge of their rights as listed in our resource links below.
2. We exhort the Mayor, the City Council, and the Minneapolis Police to provide for peaceful demonstration and to prioritize de-escalation by law enforcement and any supporting units as promised by the city.
3. We expect all law enforcement to abide by the city's promises of de-escalation and restraint on use of force by law enforcement.
4. We insist on government transparency and accountability and encourage everyone to document any unsafe behaviors of demonstrators and law enforcement.
5. We condemn all police brutality, acts of white supremacy, terrorism, or other destructive/violent behavior under the guise of protest or policing.
